

APER press release on March 8, 2020, International Women's Rights Day.

The APER highlights the work of women, particularly in terms of management functions and the work of non-unionized unionizable, members in the health and social services network. Your exceptional commitment makes the difference in maintaining and developing quality care and services for the entire population.

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the APER ensures the fairness of the fairness work and wishes to thank the women who exercise this managerial profession to promote and support.

About APER

APER is a bilingual professional association that represents management staff members and non-unionized unionizable working in the Quebec, members of the health and social services network. Founded in 1973, APER is proud to offer a personalized professional service in labor relations.