Dear Members,

APER invites you to an exclusive virtual event offered by our partner CIBC on a topic that affects many managers and their families: wealth transfer and estate planning.

Virtual Event: Passing on Your Wealth the Right Way

 Wednesday, May 27th, 2026

 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

 Online – Live virtual event

 Presentation in English with simultaneous French translation

According to a recent CIBC survey:

- 94% of Canadians believe it is important to have a will
- but only 52% actually have one

Whether you are already thinking about estate planning or simply curious to better understand the issues surrounding family wealth, this event will provide practical and accessible insights.

This event will feature a renowned expert in intergenerational wealth transfer and award-winning author, who will discuss practical strategies related to estate planning, inheritance management, family dynamics, and common pitfalls to avoid.
